

SEASON 1 EPISODE 7

Beyond Hustle: Building Sustainable Success with Kendall Bonner

1. Kendall leveraged her legal background to thrive in real estate. What past skills, experiences, or perspectives do you already have that could become powerful assets in your next career move or leadership role?
2. Kendall emphasizes that the quality of your life reflects what you make non-negotiable. What 2–3 boundaries or priorities should you declare non-negotiable to create more fulfillment and balance in your own life?
3. Kendall believes hustle alone isn't enough to build a lasting business. Where in your career are you relying too heavily on hustle, and what systems, habits, or supports could you implement to make your success sustainable?
4. Kendall's approach to leadership is to listen, empower, appreciate, and develop others. How do you currently lead those around you, and what small shifts could you make to embody this philosophy more fully?
5. Kendall views technology and AI as tools to create leverage and focus more on relationships. How are you currently using (or not using) technology to free up time for the high-impact work that only you can do?
